Connie and Jim Thompson from Trinity N.C. will present a PowerPoint and trunk show of traditional Amish quilts. They have been collecting antique Amish quilts for over 20 years. ### President's Message

Saturday was our first of the two Cameron Street Fairs and I had a great time. We had a great location this time, right in front of Ferguson House. It's always so much fun to meet new people and talk to them about their quilts and quilting experiences. Most of the people who come up to the table to purchase a raffle quilt ticket have some family member who quilted or have a quilt made long ago that they still use. They often ask questions about caring for their quilts or how the raffle quilt was made. It's such a wonderful opportunity to give out information about something that we all love to do.

Speaking of the Raffle Quilt, the time has come to find someone or a couple of some ones who will volunteer to direct the making of the 2010 Raffle Quilt. If you have an idea for next year's smash hit, please come forward and volunteer. There are plenty of members ready and willing to do their share of the project.

See you all on the 19th.

Joyce Riedell

Web Mistress

There are wonderful websites for the teachers that we have had, are planning to have, or are considering. I would recommend you check these out, to see what they offer. Often, they will describe the classes or workshops they offer, so you might suggest to the program chairs which classes would interest you. I am posting them here, but I will also post them on our website, on the Links page.

Quilt Request

The National Alliance on Mental Illness - Moore County (NAMI-MC) will be having a "walk" in late September to raise funds for their activities in the Moore County area. They have asked the guild for the donation of a quilt to use as a fund-raising opportunity. Because of the current push for Comfort Quilts, Quilts of Valor, Habitat Quilts, and Quilts of Love, the guild is not prepared to provide a quilt for their project. If you would like to personally provide a quilt for them, please let me know, and I will put you in touch with the appropriate committee member. You may visit their website at www.nami-moorecounty.org. Thanks!

Ruth Slayden
