2010 Quilt Show Info

There will be a Quilt Show meeting on Tuesday, February 16th (Guild Meeting Day) at 8:30AM at the Senior Enrichment Center. All chairs are requested to attend. All members who are interested in working the show are also invited. We are still looking for a quilt rack chairperson. If you are interested please contact either Ellene Place or Liz Earley.

Winter Weather Warning

Please remember, if Moore County Schools are closed, there will not be a Guild meeting held that day.

NEW MEMBER RECEPTION

ALL NEW GUILD MEMBERS FROM LAST YEAR, WHO DID NOT ATTEND A RECEPTION, AND THIS YEAR'S NEW MEMBERS ARE INVITED TO COME TO A RECEPTION AT THE HOME OF LIZ STERN. IT WILL BE HELD ON MARCH 2 AT 3:00 PM. PLEASE CALL AND RSVP WHETHER OR NOT YOU WILL BE ABLE TO ATTEND.

Liz Stern and Joyce Harter

President's Message

It's hard for me to believe that it's been 12 months since I retired and stopped making the weekly commute to Chapel Hill. During those six years I spent Sunday through Wednesday evenings alone with only my sewing room and my fabric stash for company (I know, tough assignment). But even quilting isn't a substitute for a great hubby in Seven Lakes!

Once I was here full-time, I was eager to get involved because I've known for years that quilting would be a big part of my retirement. Last February was my first guild meeting. It was a bit intimidating since I didn't know a soul, but so many of you made me feel welcome that I just kept returning. Thank you for reaching out, and please continue to greet newcomers at all of our activities. Not only will you help grow the guild, you may just meet a great new quilting buddy.

In February and March we have two outstanding teachers, Sally Schneider and Evelyn Agee coming to guild. We still have room in their classes, so give Gail Reilly a call if you'd like to participate. We're planning to keep the business meetings short to maximize time with our guests. If we can keep the business meetings to 30 minutes or less, we will have time for show and tell!

Happy quilting, and see you soon

Quilts of Valor

As you read this we will have just finished our first QOV workshop for the year. Thanks to all who came to the workshop (members and non-members) on February 3rd and also to those who participated by making blocks at home. We have just about enough blocks now for two quilts! A big thank you to Linderella's Quilt Shop who provided us with the classroom for the day, plus cookies.

We have scheduled our next workshop on Thursday, March 25th to sew these blocks together into quilt tops. Please contact Carl at Linderella's to sign up for the session of your choice; 10:30 to 12:30 or 1:00 to 3:00. There's room for eight sewers at each session.

NEW MEMBER PROFILE

Welcome to our first new member of 2010. June Pernice has moved here from Plattsburgh, N.Y. That is almost in Canada for you southerners.

There, she had been a guidance counselor. June has been quilting "for real" for about eight years. She enjoys all types of quilting with the exception of applique. Her other hobbies include beading, gardening and rug hooking. She looks forward to learning new techniques with the guild.

PROGRAMS

ANGEL CHALLENGE

Don't forget to select your Angel Packet this month. You will randomly choose an Angel to interpret in fabric. The sky's the limit in choosing the theme and material. Remember, you do not quilt or embellish your angel at this time. The block needs to be completed by the June meeting so that we can exchange the block with the original owner for completion. Finished angels will be displayed at the December meeting for viewer's choice selection and prizes.

FEBRUARY MEETING

Sally Schneider will be here for a wonderful program on piecing and borders. She is a nationally known teacher and author, formerly from Pennsylvania, now residing in New Mexico. Her lecture is entitled, 'Borders-The Built in Way'. After lunch, she will offer a 3 hour class, a table runner, 'Stars for Owen'. On Wednesday, Sally will teach a 6 hour class, 'Laurel Wreath with Christmas Cracker Border'. The Wednesday class will begin at 9:00 A.M. There is still room in both classes, so don't miss this opportunity to learn new skills from a master. If you are taking Sally's class(es), please bring an iron and ironing surface. Her web site is www.sallyschneider.com.

THERE WILL BE NO SHOW AND TELL IN FEBRUARY.

MARCH MEETING

Evelyn Agee will be here to sharpen our skills and show new ways to embellish our quilts with thread painting. She will address many topics; free motion quilting, machine tension, threads, needles, hoops, stabilizers, etc. Her lecture is entitled, 'Painting Your Quilts with Thread'. After lunch, Eve will begin the first half of a 6 hour class, 'Beginning Thread Painting'. The class will finish the next morning. You will be amazed how easily you can accomplish this skill and how much thread painting enhances the beauty and detail of your quilt! There are still a few openings in this class. Her web address is www.evelynagee.com

THERE WILL BE NO SHOW AND TELL IN MARCH.

MAY MEETING

Lyric Kinard will boost our surface embellishment ideas and techniques with a lecture, 'The Elements of Art'. Lyric takes fabric embellishment to a whole new level with paint, dye, and other unique ideas. You will be able to add to your skills and develop new ways to add a special touch to your work. She will present a 3 hour class after lunch, 'Play with Paint'. There will be an additional $10.00 fee, payable directly to Lyric, to cover the cost of paint and materials that Lyric will provide. Her web site is Lyric@pobox.com.

Please remember to bring your lunch if you are staying for classes.
